September 20, 2019

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

On Sunday, September 22, 2019, at the UAW General Motors and Aramark picket lines across the nation – I encourage your participation in Solidarity Sunday. We are inviting people of faith and others to join the picket lines in support as we recognize one full week since the start of this fight for a strong contract. Additionally at noon on Sunday, your local union chaplain will be available on the picket lines for words of support.

As you know, strikes can be physically, emotionally, and spiritually exhausting on our membership and their families. We sincerely hope that these services provide everyone with a peaceful opportunity to come together to show support for those on the picket lines and those who have been wrongfully stripped from their quality healthcare by General Motors.

In solidarity,
