This young man was honoring his daddy by dressing like him! This certainly puts things into perspective of just what families go through when their loved ones are away serving and protecting our great country.

Kentucky National Guard soldiers deployed to Guantanamo Bay

A departure ceremony was held Friday August 23, 2019 for more than 120 soldiers with the Kentucky Army National Guard's 223rd Military Police Company. The ceremony was at the United Auto Workers Union Hall Local 862 in Louisville. The service was opened to the families of the soldiers which brought an additional 400 (+) to Local 862. The local union opened the hall with open arms and proud to be able to display our gratitude for our service men and women.

The soldiers were deployed in support of U.S. Southern Command. The Louisville-based unit was last deployed in 2008-2009 to Baghdad, Iraq, in Support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.
